HISTORICAL SKETCH.

THE First Church in Hartford, from which the North Church separated in 1824, was the first Church established in Connecticut, in which the ordinances of the gospel have been regularly administered. The venerable THOMAS HOOKER, and his assistant in the ministry, the Rev. SAMUEL STONE, arrived at Boston, Sept. 4, 1633, and on the 11th of October, a Church was organized at Cambridge, Mass. (then called Newtown) and the pastor and teacher were ordained to their respective offices. In June, 1636, they with their company, consisting of about 100 persons, removed to this place. Mr. HOOKER died July 7, 1647, in the 61st year of his age, and the 12th of his ministry here, and Mr. STONE July 20th, 1663, in the 61st year of his age, and 28th of his ministry. The Rev. JOHN WHITING and the Rev. JOSEPH HAYNES, succeeded the above. Mr. WHITING was ordained 1660, and Mr. HAYNES 1664. In 1669, under their ministry the church divided, and Mr. WHITING became the pastor of the South Church. He died 1689. Mr. HAYNES died May 24, 1679, in the 38th year of his age, and the 15th of his ministry.

The Rev. ISAAC FOSTER succeeded Mr. HAYNES the latter part of 1679, or beginning of 1680, and died in January, 1683.

The next pastor, the Rev. TIMOTHY WOODBRIDGE, was ordained November 18, 1685, and died April 30, 1732, at an advanced age, and in the 47th year of his ministry.

The Rev. DANIEL WADSWORTH was ordained September 23, 1732, and died November 12, 1747, in the 43d year of his age, and 16th of his ministry.

The Rev. EDWARD DORR was ordained April 27, 1748, and died October 20, 1772, in the 50th year of his age, and 25th of his ministry.

The Rev. NATHAN STRONG, D. D. was ordained January 5, 1774, and died December 25, 1816, in the 68th year of his age, and 43d of his ministry.

The Rev. JOEL HAWES, the present pastor, was ordained March 4, 1818.

The North Church of Christ in Hartford was organized in the Meeting-House of the First Church and Society, on the 23d of September, 1824; the Rev. JOEL HAWES, pastor of the First Church, the Rev. JOEL H. LINSLEY, pastor of the Second Church, and the Rev. NATHAN PERKINS, D.D. pastor of the Third Church, in Hartford, officiating on the occasion. The following is a copy of the letter addressed by the original members to the parent Church, prior to their dismissal and organization as a distinct body, which will show the origin and progress of the formation of this Church.

To the Reverend Mr. HAWES, Pastor of the First Church in Hartford, and to the Church under his care.

REVEREND AND BELOVED,

Although the facts with which we preface the request contained in this communication, are well known to you; we, nevertheless, think it due to you, as well as to ourselves, and to the Church in general, to record them in connection therewith.

The First Church and Society having become so numerous that all the members could not well be accommodated with seats in the meeting-house, and many, from time to time, having been prevented from joining us for the same reason, several meetings of the members were called in order to take into consideration the existing inconvenience, and what measures might be adopted for removing it.

At these meetings, an opinion seemed to pervade the minds of the members, that it would be desirable to effect the object without any separation of the connection ; but no plan, proposed, was found practicable. It was therefore resolved to be expedient, and advice was given, at several successive meetings, that a number of the Church and society should withdraw for the purpose of forming a new and distinct Church and congregational society, and of erecting a new meeting-house in this city. All these meetings were distinguished for the harmony and unanimity of their proceedings.

In pursuance of the above resolutions and advice, we, whose names are hereunto subscribed, members of the Church, formally separated from the society, and associating with others formed a new congregational society. That society has proceeded in the proposed work—have nearly completed a new meeting-house, and, in connection with it, have quite finished a conference or lecture room, in which, having invited a minister to preach to them, they have commenced public worship. Hitherto, they have been harmonious and united in their measures.

Beloved brethren, having undergone these labors with a view (as we hope,) to promote the kingdom of our Redeemer, and it being necessary for the order of God's house that his professing people should be connected in visible relation as a Church, and we, being desirous of enjoying that privilege, so soon as convenient, do now request your consent that we withdraw from your communion, in order that we may be formed into a distinct Church.

We cannot take leave of you, dear brethren, on this occasion, without here recording, under our own hands, that great is our love for our dear pastor, that our confidence in him has been strengthening from our earliest connection, and that in being called to remove from under his care, we sever the tenderest of ties. As for yourselves, brethren, there is no need that we testify to you of the fellowship that we have with you. "Ye are in our hearts." We pray you to feel with us and for us on this interesting occasion. By the tender mercies of our Lord, and with many tears, we entreat you, "pray for us."

When separated from you, we shall "be as sheep having no shepherd." When your beloved pastor was given to you and to us, our prayers, our counsels and our labors were joined, and the blessing was bestowed. We now look to you as our elder brethren. "Pray for us that God of his great mercy would soon place over us a good Shepherd," one that will lead us in the "good old way"—the way that our Fathers trod, and by which they ascended to glory.

Further we beseech you, brethren, although we may cease to be united under our Pastor, that you would still esteem and hold us in your affections as one in Christ Jesus, "for we are members of his body, and of his flesh, and of his bones." Let us still love as brethren, and count each other as such—always remembering that we have labored together, and have often been permitted to rejoice together, through the operations of that one Spirit "with joy unspeakable and full of glory."

Finally, brethren, farewell!—May we all be of one mind, live in peace; and may the God of love and peace be with us. Amen.

Hartford, September 9, 1824.

At its organization, the Church consisted of 102 members, 39 males and 63 females. On the 30th November, 1824, the Rev. CARLOS WILCOX was installed Pastor of the Church, and sustained the relation till May 31, 1826, when he was dismissed at his own request, on account of impaired health. The Rev. SAMUEL SPRING was installed on the 21st March, 1827.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

ARTICLE I.

WE as a Church, believe that Jehovah, the true and eternal God, who made, supports and governs the world, is perfect in natural and moral excellence, and that he exists in three persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, who possess the same nature, and are equal in every divine perfection.

Deut. vi. 4; Isai. xlv. 5; Ps. xc. 2; Neh. ix. 6; Math. x. 29, 30; 1 John iv. 8; Math. v. 48; Exo. xxxiv. 6, 7; John i. 1, 3; Phil. ii. 1, 6, 11; Heb. i. 2, 3, 6, 8; Acts v. 3, 4; Acts xiii. 2, 4; Math. xxviii. 19; 2 Cor. xiii. 14—see also Colos. i. 14 to 19. Rev. v. 8 to 13; 1 John v. 7, 8, 20.

ARTICLE II.

We believe that the scriptures of the Old and New Testament were written by holy men, as they were moved by the Holy Ghost, and are the only infallible rule of doctrine and duty.

2 Tim. iii. 15 to 17; 2 Pet. i. 19 to 21; Math. xxii. 29; Ps. cxix. 105; Ps. cxix. 97—see also Luke xxiv. 27, 44, 45; John v. 39; Isa. viii. 20; Gal. i. 8; Rev. xxii. 18, 19.

ARTICLE III.

We believe that God has made all things for himself, that known unto him are all his works from the beginning, and that he governs all things according to the council of his own will.

Rev. iv. 11; Rom. xi. 36; Acts ii. 23; Isa. xlv. 10; Acts iv. 27, 28; Eph. i. 11; Ps. xxxiii. 11—see also, Isa. xlv. 7; Prov. xvi. 4, 19, 21; Heb. vi. 17; Mal. iii. 6.

ARTICLE IV.

We believe that men are immortal and accountable; that the law of God is perfect and his government just and good; and that all rational beings are bound to approve, love and obey them.

Eccles. xii. 7; Math. x. 28; Rom. xiv. 12; 2 Cor. v. 10; Rom. vii. 12—see also, Ps. xix. 7, 9; Rev. xv. 3; Math. xxii. 32, 12, 36.

ARTICLE V.

We believe that in consequence of the apostacy of Adam, sin and misery have been introduced into the world, and that all men, unless renewed by the Holy Spirit are destitute of holiness, and under the curse of the divine law.

Rom. v. 12, 19—see Gen. i. 26, 27; Eccles. vii. 29. Gen. vi. 5; Gen. viii. 21; Eccles. ix. 3; Jer. xvii. 9; John iii. 6, 7; Rom. viii. 6 to 8—see also, Ps. xiv. 1 to 3; Eph. ii. 3; Rom. iii. 9 to 18; John iii. 36.

ARTICLE VI.

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ assumed the nature of man, and by his mediation and death on the cross, made atonement for the sins of the world.

Heb. ii. 14, 16; John i. 14, 29; 1 John ii. 2; Rom. v. 8; Rev. v. 9—see also, 1 Pet. i. 18 to 20; Phil. ii. 6 to 8; 1 Tim. iii. 16; Math. xxvi. 28; Heb. vii. 27; 1 John ii. 2.

ARTICLE VII.

We believe that men may accept of the offers of salvation freely made to them in the Gospel; but that no one will do this, except he be drawn by the Father.

Rev. xxii. 17; Isa. xlv. 22; Ezek. xviii. 30, 31; Luke xiv. 17; John v. 40, 6, 44—see also, Ez. xxxiii. 11; Mark xvi. 15, 16; John vi. 37.

ARTICLE VIII.

We believe that those who are finally saved, will owe their salvation to the mere sovereign mercy of God, in Christ Jesus, through repentance and faith in him, and not to any works of righteousness which they have done.

Ezek. xxxvi. 26, 32 ; Eph. i. 3 to 5 ; 2 Thess. ii. 13 ; Rom. ix. 18, 21 ; Tit. iii. 5—see also, Acts xiii. 48 : Rev. vii. 9, 10 ; John x. 11, 27, 17, 24 ; Rom. viii. 29, 30.

ARTICLE IX.

We believe that a conscientious discharge of the various duties which we owe to God, to our fellow men, and to ourselves, as enjoined in the gospel, is not only constantly binding on every Christian, but affords to himself and to the world, the only decisive evidence of his interest in the Redeemer.

John xv. 14, 12, 8 ; Math. x. 37, 38 ; Luke vi. 46 ; James i. 26, 27—see also, James iii. 17 ; Math. xviii. 20, vi. 6 ; 2 Cor. i. 12 ; Mic. vi. 8 ; Josh. i. 8.

ARTICLE X.

We believe that any number of Christians duly organized, constitute a church of Christ, the special ordinances of which are Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

Math. xviii. 17, xxviii. 19 ; Luke xxii. 19, 20—see also, 1 Cor. xi. 20, 23 to 26 ; Acts viii. 36, ii. 41, xvi. 33, xvi. 15 : 1 Cor. xi. 27, 29.

ARTICLE XI.

We believe that all mankind must hereafter appear before the judgment seat of Christ, to receive a just and final retribution, according to the deeds done in the body ; and that the wicked will be sent away into everlasting punishment, and the righteous received into life eternal.

Such are the doctrines believed by this church. Do you cordially assent to them ?

2 Cor. v. 10 ; Acts xvii. 31 ; Math. xiii. 40 to 43 ; 2 Pet. ii. 4, 9 ; 2 Thes. i. 6 to 10 ; Heb. x. 31 ; Rev. xx. 12, 15, xxi. 8 ; Math. xxv. 31 to 46—see also, John xvii. 24 ; 1 Thess. iv. 17 ; Rom. ii. 2 to 12, 16 ; Eccles. xii. 14 ; Jude vi. 15 ; Dan. xii. 2 ; Mark viii. 33 ; Rev. xxii. 10, 11, 12.

COVENANT.

In the presence of God and this assembly, you do now seriously, deliberately and for ever give up yourselves in faith and love and holy obedience, to God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost ;—accepting the Lord, Jehovah, to be your God ;—Jesus Christ to be your prophet, priest and king ;—and the Holy Ghost to be your Sanctifier, Comforter and Guide.—Although sensible of your weakness and guilt, and of your liability to error and sin, still you do sincerely desire, and, by the aids of Divine grace, do promise, to receive in love the pure doctrines of the gospel, to walk in the statutes and ordinances of the Lord blameless, and to do honor to your high and holy vocation by a life of piety towards God and benevolence towards your fellow-men.—

You do, also, cordially join yourselves to this Church of Christ, engaging to submit to its discipline, so far as conformable to the rules of the gospel, and solemnly covenanting, as much as in you lies, to promote its peace, edification and purity, and to walk with its members in christian love, faithfulness, circumspection, sobriety and meekness. This, you promise and engage to do, with humble trust in the grace of God, and with an affecting belief that your vows are recorded on high, and will be reviewed in the day of final judgment.

Thus you promise and engage.

We, then, as a Church, do cordially receive you, into our fellowship and communion, and give thanks to God, who we trust, has inclined your heart to fear his name.—We promise to treat you with christian affection ;—to watch over you with tenderness ;—and to offer our prayers to the Great Head of the Church to enable you to fulfil the solemn covenant which you have now made.—“The Lord bless you and keep you ; the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you ; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.” “Now unto him, who is able to establish and keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory, with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour—be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.”
